PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND REPENTANCE Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God (quiet personal prayer)

Heavenly Father, we confess that we are sometimes swayed by the crowd. We turn from giving our all to You and instead are swayed by the "good thing" we hear/see the crowd pushing. We let our desires and fears get stirred up and keep us from moving away from the crowd into what you have called us to. We now ask that You forgive us of our sin against You. Forgive us for how our sin has impacted the world and others. Lord Jesus, thank You for dying on the cross and paying the penalty for our sin.

Holy Spirit, thank you for Your abiding presence, and for the grace we need to willingly submit to and obey the Father. Today we choose to commit all our ways to You and trust implicitly in Your Word. We choose to step out from the crowd and stand on Your Word. May the desires of our hearts unite with Your perfect will and eternal purposes, for Your everlasting praise and glory.

Now Blessed Trinity may the same grace that has led us to repentance this day, work in us that we may delight in Your will and walk fully in Your ways, all of our days, to the glory of Your name. Amen.

CHRIST THE KING

(Congregation responses spoken together appear in bold print.)

OPENING DECLARATION & PRAYER

Lift up your heads, O gates, and be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in! Who is the King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O gates, and lift them up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in! Who is this King of glory! The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. (prayer)

SCRIPTURE READING: Psalm 95:1-7a (NASB95)

 $^1 \, \mathrm{O}$ come, let us sing for joy to the Lord,

Let us shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation.

² Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving, Let us shout joyfully to Him with psalms.

³For the Lord is a great God and a great King above all gods,

⁴ In whose hand are the depths of the earth,

The peaks of the mountains are His also.

⁵ The sea is His, for it was He who made it,

And His hands formed the dry land.

⁶ Come, let us worship and bow down,

Let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

⁷ For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand.

"When He Has Come"

By Oswald Chambers

When He has come, He will convict the world of sin...-John 16:8

Very few of us know anything about conviction of sin. We know the experience of being disturbed because we have done wrong things. But conviction of sin by the Holy Spirit blots out every relationship on earth and makes us aware of only one-"Against You, You only, have I sinned..." (Psalm 51:4). When a person is convicted of sin in this way, he knows with every bit of his conscience that God would not dare to forgive him. If God did forgive him, then this person would have a stronger sense of justice than God. God does forgive, but it cost the breaking of His heart with grief in the death of Christ to enable Him to do so. The great miracle of the grace of God is that He forgives sin, and it is the death of Jesus Christ alone that enables the divine nature to forgive and to remain true to itself in doing so. It is shallow nonsense to say that God forgives us because He is love. Once we have been convicted of sin, we will never say this again. The love of God means Calvary-nothing less! The love of God is spelled out on the Cross and nowhere else. The only basis for which God can forgive me is the Cross of Christ. It is there that His conscience is satisfied.

Forgiveness doesn't merely mean that I am saved from hell and have been made ready for heaven (no one would accept forgiveness on that level). Forgiveness means that I am forgiven into a newly created relationship which identifies me with God in Christ. The miracle of redemption is that God turns me, the unholy one, into the standard of Himself, the Holy One. He does this by putting into me a new nature, the nature of Jesus Christ.
